Nineteen Ninety

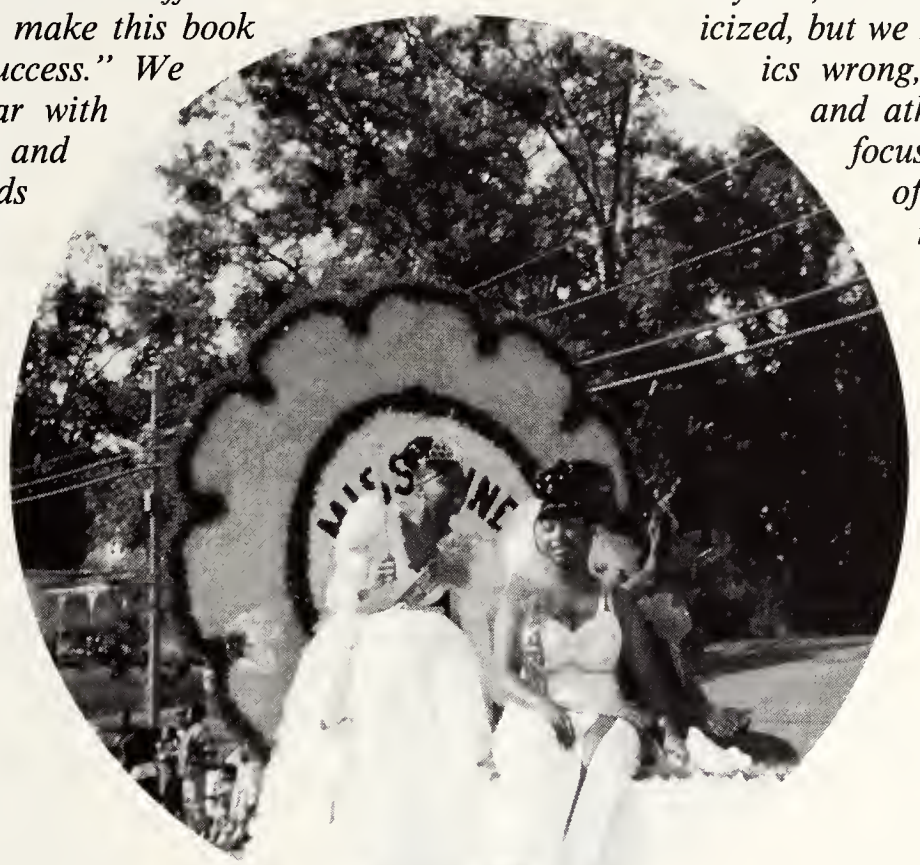

HINDSONIAN

Collection Of Success

The Hinds AHS Yearbook Staff has taken great effort to make this book "A Collection of Success." We meet again this year with new hopes, dreams, and new standards. Hinds has brought about new changes this year. For example, we have a new farsighted principal, Mr. Carl Palmer. We have a new energetic social studies teacher, Ms. Romona Williams.

For years, this school has been criticized, but we have proven our critics wrong, both educationally and athletically. This book focuses on our collection of goals and achievements for the 1998-99 school year. We want people to realize that Hinds Agricultural High School is the place to be. Browse through these pages and you will realize why.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

It is an honor to welcome you to Hinds AHS. A new school year presents opportunities for various beginnings — new classes, new faces, new courses, and often new materials. I am eager, as your principal to accept the task of helping you acquire a quality education. You will be offered an array of opportunities at Hinds AHS to express your skills and talents, both in academics and extra-curricular activities. I hope you accept these opportunities by applying yourself to the utmost. Our faculty and staff are very competent here at Hinds AHS. They have very high expectations for our school. Our students are most important in reaching those high expectations. We are here to help you reach your desired level of achievement. I extend to you my assistance in making your years at Hinds AHS as rewarding as possible.

MISS SENIOR

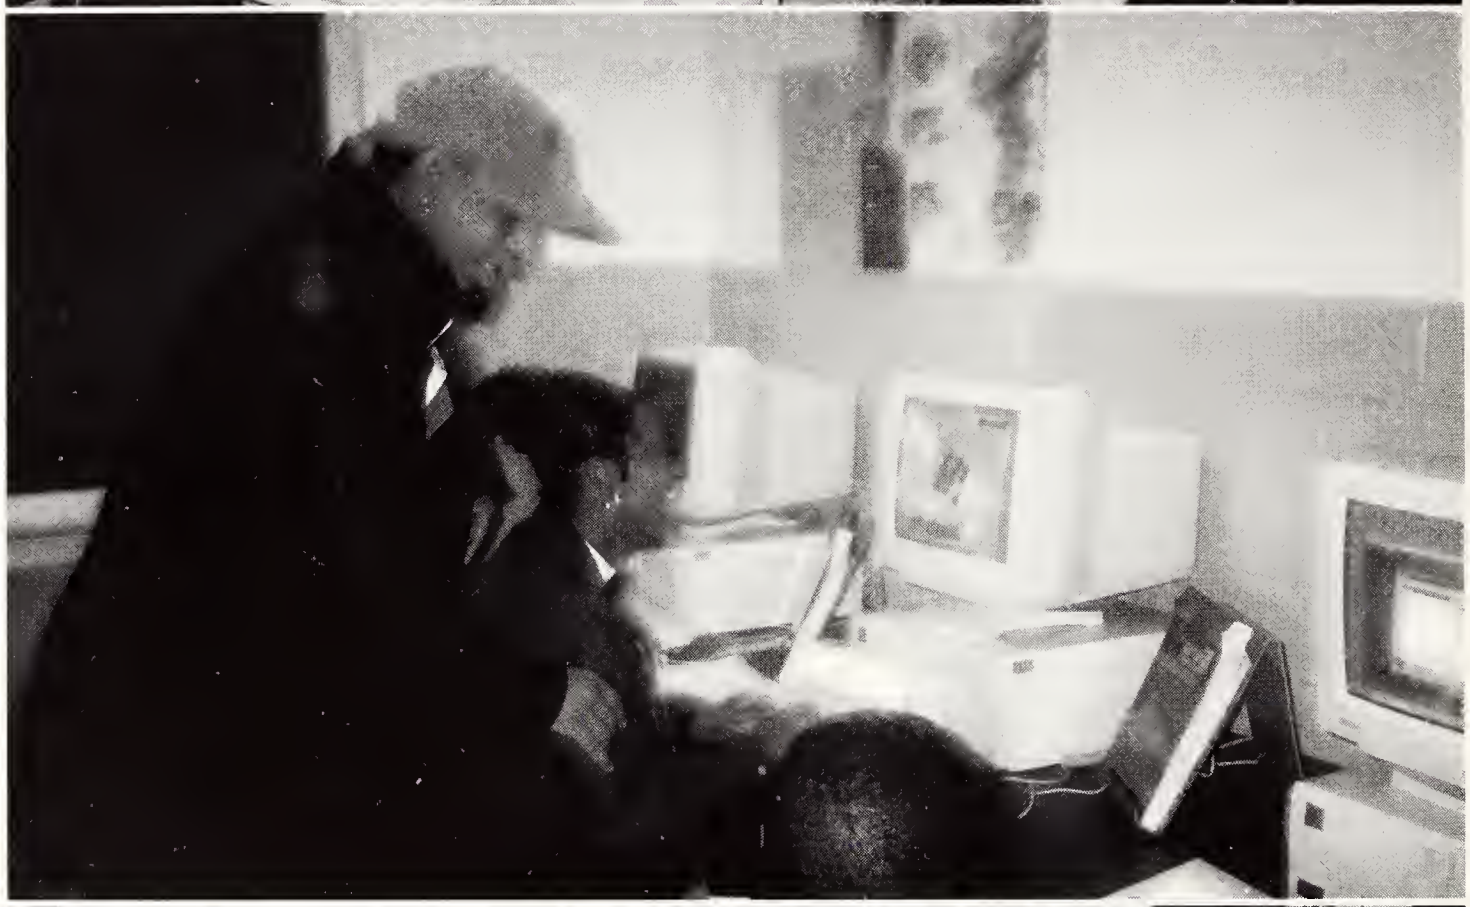

In Memoriam

This issue of the Hinds AHS yearbook is dedicated to the late 1st Sergeant Daniel Jennings, a US Army veteran, a deacon, a statesman, an educator, a politician of sorts, a husband, a father, and a friend. First Sgt. Jennings worked here at Hinds AHS as a JROTC instructor for seventeen years. During that time he served as a role model for many students. He was very outgoing, outspoken, and candid. Not only that, but he was also an ambitious, hardworking man as well as a devout perfectionist.

First Sgt. Jennings is credited with the arrangement and composition of the lyrics for "God Bless Hinds AHS". Additionally, he is remembered as being dedicated to establishing and maintaining the Hinds AHS JROTC program in the top ten percent of the nation's high schools throughout his seventeen-year tenure here. He has been greatly honored for his efforts by having the Hinds AHS JROTC Battalion redesignated as the Daniel L. Jennings Bulldog Battalion (April 24, 1998).

In 1994, he was named distinguished secondary instructor for the Hinds Community College District.
